

SAMANTHA DESCIDERIO (México)

Studies:

- Degree in Law and Social Sciences (Graduated with Honors)
- Degree in Philosophy and Letters

Work experience:

Eighteen years in public administration, holding positions such as the general director in areas of a tax attorney, regulatory improvement, public security, the youth sports institute, civil protection, and the ERUM of the government from which she is from and currently resides.

Career

She has worked in karate in Mexico as an athlete, coach, director, and CEO. She is currently president of the Mexican Karate Federation, the first woman in her country to lead national karate.

- 2022.- Member of the executive committee of the World Karate Federation
- 2021.- Vice President of the Executive Committee of the Central American and Caribbean Confederation
- 2020.- Elected president of the Mexican Federation of Karate and Related Martial Arts, a.c.
- 2019.- Secretary of the Board of Directors of the Mexican Federation of Karate and CEO of the Mexican Federation of Karate.
- 2017- Member of the board of directors of the Mexican karate federation and CEO of the Mexican karate federation.
- 2017-2019.- WKF certified kumite coach kumite
- 2015-2016.- Winner of the sports award, awarded by the government as the best coach
- 2008-2014.- Trainer certified by the training and certification system for sports trainers in Mexico and participant trainer in the Mexican Federation of Karate-Do (FEMEKA)
- 1998.- Runner-up of the sixth karate world cup, Miskolc, Hungary
- 1995-2000.- National karate team in Mexico
- 1988- 1994.- Permanent competitor in events of the Mexican karate federation
- 1987.- She started training in karate when she was eight years old.

MEMBER

